

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 3, 2007

Contact:
Scott A. Pullins
740-392-3505

Pullins Law Firm Growing Again
Firm Now 3rd Largest in Knox County

Mount Vernon, Ohio - Scott A. Pullins, Ltd., LPA www.pullinslaw.com, a Mount Vernon, Ohio based law firm, has appointed lawyer Tom Flinn Of Counsel. Mr. Flinn is a graduate of Capital University Law School with a professional background in transportation matters.

Mr. Flinn and his family reside in Reynoldsburg. Flinn joins the Pullins Law Firm as a full time Of Counsel with full time Of Counsel Tonia Pever Brown and founder Scott A. Pullins. Based upon full time attorneys, the Pullins Law Firm is now the 3rd largest firm in Knox County behind longtime firms Zelkowitz, Barry & Cullers and Critchfield & Critchfield.

The Pullins firm initially started as the part-time law practice of Ohio public affairs counselor Scott A. Pullins and was first located in downtown Columbus. In 2005, however, Mr. Pullins moved his offices to downtown Mount Vernon and greatly expanded his legal practice.

The Pullins firm serves as Solicitor for the Village of Gann in Knox County and as Counsel for A Natural Home, the Ohio Coal Association, the Ohio Provider Resources Association, Critical Life EMS, Equity Search Inc., the Strategy Group for Media, the Paws4People Foundation and many other clients throughout the State of Ohio. Most recently the Pullins Law Firm won a landmark legal decision against the Apple Valley Property Owners Association concerning the rights of its members.

“I am pleased to be able to hire another fine Capital Law grad like Tom Flinn,” stated Scott A. Pullins. “He will greatly add to our growing practice and allow us to continue to expand our services for clients.”

For further information, please visit www.pullinslaw.com or call 740-392-3505.